Assessment

Participation in compulsory seminars

Scope: 5.0

Grading Scale: Fail, Pass

Assessment takes place through active and constructive participation in mandatory seminars.

In the event of absence or insufficient participation, the examiner may decide to allow supplementation in order for a passing grade to be achieved in the course.

The supplementation shall be submitted no later than three working days after announcement of the decision on supplementation, unless special circumstances exist that are acceptable to the examiner.

Grading

Grades are set according to a two-grade scale: Pass (P) and Fail (F). Grading criteria are specified by no later than the start of the course.

Restrictions in Number of Examinations

The number of examinations is not limited.

Restrictions Concerning Degree

The course cannot be included in a degree with another course whose content fully or partially corresponds to the content of this course.

Transitional Provisions

When the course is no longer given or when the course content has changed substantially, the student has the right to be examined once per semester during a three-term period in accordance with this syllabus.

Miscellaneous

The course is given within the Swedish Defence University's Master's Programme in International Operational Law, and may also be given as a freestanding course.

If a student has a decision from the Swedish Defence University regarding special educational support due to a disability, the examiner may decide on alternative forms of examination for the student.

On completion of the course, an evaluation will be conducted under the auspices of the course director and will serve as the basis for any changes to the course.
